Our choice of the best bars and restaurants to open in the last month

The Wine Theatre

202-206 Union Street
London, SE1 0LH

Who's behind it The team comprises four friends from Turin, Italy, who previously worked in the hospitality sector at Harrods. The concept is based on the Italian aperitivo trend of small plates of food.

What's on the menu The aperitivo menu is offered between 5pm and 8pm. Diners pay £8 for the first drink, with each drink thereafter charged at menu prices. There is no additional charge for food, which includes cheese, charcuterie, pasta and salads. There is also an à la carte menu at lunchtime and evenings.

And to drink There are nearly 100 wines on offer, including a big choice by the glass which will be kept fresh with an enomatic system. Each dish has a recommended wine match.
